

SOUTH ARBOR ACADEMY KICKS OFF DRIVE TO BENEFIT MOTHERS AT LOCAL FAMILY SHELTER

'Movers for Moms' Will Benefit Safe House in Ann Arbor, MI

South Arbor Academy has partnered with Two Men and a Truck to collect and deliver items to mothers in need that are served locally by the Safe House of Ann Arbor. The "Movers for Moms" program collects donated items to be delivered on Mother's Day. The donation drive, which will run from March 23rd till April 2nd, is collecting personal supplies, clothing, baby items, food and toys. Donations can be brought to the school or dropped off at a local Two Men and a Truck location.

Pictured from left to right are:

Front Row. South Arbor Middle School Students Jessie Reszetar, Hannah Bilmeyer, Kevin Kollar, Malaika Worsham, Cory Gyulveszi and Breanna McKelvey

Back Row. Gwyn Hulswit (Safe House); Matt Sheedy and Alan Oversmith (Two Men and a Truck); Tim DiLaura (South Arbor Principal)